Program Description

The District of Columbia Public Library Trust Fund operates through the following program:

Library Trust Funds - For accounting purposes, agency trust funds are classified as fiduciary funds that show assets held by the District in a trustee capacity or as an agent for individuals, private organizations, and other governments. Such trust funds are custodial in nature, reporting only assets and liabilities. Since fiduciary funds cannot be used for the operations of the government, they are not included in the District's government-wide financial statements. Prior to FY 2005, the budget authority for agency trust funds was included in the operating budgets of the agencies that administered them. Since FY 2005, these trust funds have been shown as separate budget agencies so that the District's budget structure would show these trust funds in a manner consistent with their presentation in the District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR).

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Georgetown Peabody Trust Fund - Comprised of a bequest of $10,000. The Peabody Library Association of Georgetown provided by deed, a gift of securities, cash and other valuables in 1979 to support the Georgetown library branch and for other designated purposes; and
- Theodore W. Noyes Trust Fund - Comprised of a bequest of $7,000.
